Dear Mr. Cosentino:

On behalf of Cinelli Iron & Metal Co., Inc., this letter shall serve to confirm my telephone conversation with Marc Seidenberg, Esq., which took place today. At the conclusion of this telephone conversation, Mr. Seidenberg, on behalf of the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency, granted to Cinelli Iron & Metal Co., an extension of time to provide information regarding the above referenced project as further requested by your agency. An extension of time was granted until February 16, 1996, for Cinelli Iron & Metal Co. to provide the information which was requested.

If your understanding differs from that which is contained herein, and in the event that such extension is not granted, it is imperative that you immediately contact my office and advise me of such upon your receipt of this letter.

Very truly yours,

Mark T. Janeczko
